

OTIL bags National Telecom Award 2009

Quipps Telecom Infrastructure Ltd. (QITIL) has awarded the 'Largest Independent Tender Company' award by CMA INFOCOM National Telecom Award 2009. The prize was presented to Quipps by Gaurav Kataria, Minister of State Communications & IT, in an award ceremony held in New Delhi, and was received by Smit Kanoria, CMD, Quipps

Group and Anur Kapse, Group President, Quipps & MD-QITIL. This award recognises and provides greater encouragement and impetus to the telecom players for their contributions in building a robust national telecom network and providing an effective means of communications. INFOCOM along with CMAI, the Communications and Manufacturing Association of India, jointly organised the National Telecom Awards 2009. The award ceremony saw more than 400 delegates from Telecom and IT companies, large corporates, SMEs, policy-makers and media. The industry was represented by telecom operators, enterprise solution providers, equipment manufacturers, exporters, technology providers, and systems integrators from the ICT arena.