

Quippo - A partner in World Disability Day Celebrations

To commemorate the World Disability Day 2007, Quippo along with SREI sponsored a show of 'Barefoot in the Park' that was held on 2nd December 2007 at the Russian Center for Science and Culture, New Delhi.

Quippo is an organization with a heart and we have been acutely aware of our role as a socially responsible corporate citizen. And the organization has made a beginning towards creating better social awareness and improvement in the quality of life for human beings. Quippo is associated with 'AHEAD' - Association for Humans, Environment and Development (a registered NGO Regd. No. 44057) that combines theatre with live bands and performers to spread social awareness in a creative way like never before. Led by Divya, a director, actor and writer in the entertainment industry for nearly ten years in India, this NGO has been for pioneering the unique concept of 'Theatre for a purpose and entertainment with a purpose of harnessing the creative medium of theatre to spread awareness and create sensitivity on social issues and the causes that need attention.

As Divya continues to support and make a difference to various social causes and issues, through city tours in New Delhi, Mumbai and Goa among others, Quippo stand firmly behind her in support.

About the NGO & the "Theatre for Purpose"

Divya's NGO along with her other organizations 'Jyot Society Of Parents With Autistic Children Goa' and 'Disable Rights Association, Goa' 'DRAG' located in Goa work for the rehabilitation of persons with disability and their human rights. 'Barefoot in the Park' is one of the world's favorite Broadway hit comedy. It is a play written by Neil Simon, America's supreme foremost play writer of contemporary comedies. And now is it being brought to you here in New Delhi for the first time after nearly 25 years. This is directed and adapted by Divya Arora.

About World Disability Day

3rd December is the World Disability Day. The United Nations has announced the theme for World Disability Day 2007 as 'Decent Work for Persons with Disabilities'.

There are about 100 million people with disabilities in India. Less than 1% have access to employment of any kind. They are equally capable & talented. All they need is equal opportunity, level playing ground and an open mind.
